

Halloween to the Fairies

By Adrita Pal

My sister, my friends -- Aliaya and Farah, and I went trick or treating. Well because it was Halloween night. The only problem is how are we supposed to get enough candy and follow the rule-- to stay on Petrified Street. Plus there are spooky woods at the end of this street! AHhhhgggg, there is this crazy rule that we have to follow, and we will follow it and go trick or treating.

“We are halfway down the street, and only another half to go.” ---- said Adrita.

“Aww,” ---- said everyone, including me.

“Yeah we know, but rules are rules and we were getting close to the woods.” ---- said Adrita and Aliaya together.

We noticed as we were walking down the street, in a few houses where all the decoration looked real. The skeletons glared at us, the smoke that was coming out of the Witches cauldron smelled awful, the street was covered with crows and we all were scared.

Everything just got bigger and bigger.

“Aww. Do we have to go home now?”
---- asked Akshita.

“Wait, there are more houses?” ---- said Aliaya.

“Yeah,” ---- said Farah.

Should we keep going?” ---- asked Aliaya.

“Okay! We are not breaking rules, so it’s ok!” ----- said Adrita.

“The Houses are so tiny.”----- said Akshita.

“Buzz, hi, how are you?”----- asked a tiny soft voice. I guess I shouldn't have said that. Or that... or that. Uh-oh oops a daisies.”

“Hey, who said that?!”----- asked Adrita

“Me, Matilda, I am a fairy,” said Matilda.

“Well then trick or treat,” ----- said Aliaya.

“Do not say that around here. Oops sorry, I'm not allowed to say ‘you know what - T or T’ around here. Because the last houses back there, they're not dressed up people, they are real,” --- said Matilda.

“But why are we not allowed to say you know what?” --- asked Adrita.

“Because it attracts those monsters to this Forest where we live,” --- replied Matilda.

“And what do they do to you exactly?” -----asked Adrita.

“Well, they try to eat us every Halloween. They are always looking for us in this forest, and they can only find us if someone says the T or T - the halloween phrase". ---- said Matilda.

"But why don't they try to eat us humans," --- asked Aliaya.

"Cuz you don't have magical powers," --- replied Matilda.

"Do you have magical powers?" ---- wondered Akshita.

"I'm not supposed to say that either, but yeah. If they get those magical powers, then they will control the world forever," ---- said Matilda.

"kay then somehow we have to destroy them," --- said Adrita.

“We're all too scared to get out of this forest because it has a secret barrier where they can't see us,” --- said Matilda.

“That's why we have never figured out how to destroy them.”---- continued Matilda.

“But we can figure out how to destroy them,” --- said Farah.

“Really! You can do it?, will you do it for us?” --- responded Matilda.

“The thing is we're not allowed to leave the street,” --- said Aliaya.

“Well you have to be extremely careful not to touch them, legend says if you touch them, you will turn into one of them. Legend also says the secret lies under their feet in an enchanted scroll.” said Matilda.

“Then what do we do?” ---- asked Akshita.

“Hold on. Can't we just get some candy and leave,” --- said Aliaya.

“Hey, we can't just leave them here,” --- said Farah.

We all started to brainstorm ---

“Well we can use super glue and rope to set a trap. Once the monster steps on it, we can pull the rope to make the monster fall. That would create a distraction” ---- said Adrita.

“I think that would work, but how do we hide the rope from them? --- asked Matilda.

“Well then maybe we can camouflage the rope with grass and twigs,” --- said Akshita.

“Yeah, but the scroll is under the tallest monster’s shoes, how do we make him step on the rope?” ---said Matilda.

“Wonder what we could do to make this plan work...” --- said Adrita.

How about we stick a note “STEP ON THIS TO FIND THE FAIRIES” and when he does step on it Farah and Akshita can sneak and get the scroll and me, Alaiya, and you can drag him out of the way.

And bring it to you and you'll be able to figure out how to destroy it with magic or something more powerful," ----- explained Adrita.

"Okay, if you say so," --- said Matilda.

"Hold on a minute. Let me just go ask the king if we can do this or not," ---- said Matilda.

"What? There's a king?" --- asked Akshita.

"Yeah duh. Who else did you think built the barrier?" --- replied Matilda.

"It's starting to make sense now," ---- said Aliaya.

“The king said yes,” --- said Matilda.

“Cool, now we just do it,” --- said Adrita.

After that, we followed the plan, succeeded and everyone lived happily ever after!

{The End }
